Invest in a Future of Healthy Aging

Your Gift. Our Research. A Healthier Future for All.

We're back with the next issue of our Invest in a Future of Healthy Aging campaign, honoring more than 40 years of progress at the Stein Institute for Research on Aging. As we look toward the decades ahead, we're celebrating the discoveries, mentorship, and community partnerships that have shaped our impact—and the new initiatives that will carry this work forward. From expanding training opportunities to deepening our community reach, we remain committed to transforming cutting-edge science into meaningful improvements in healthspan and quality of life. Together, we're building the foundation for the next era of healthy aging innovation.

HONOR 40 YEARS OF PROGRESS —INVEST IN THE FUTURE

BUILD ON A STRONG LEGACY

The Stein Institute has been a leader in aging research and training—
shaping what it means to age well.

40 years strong: training leaders, publishing research, and creating programs that transform aging. Join us to shape the future.

Your gift can make a lasting difference:

- $25,000 establishes a named research fellowship in geroscience
- $50,000 and above supports major research initiatives with donor recognition
